MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND IN CHIPPEWA!!!

Ok, it is not EXACTLY what we had hoped for- the weather may not be good for all of the water fun we had planned, BUT here is a great alternative!

IT'S A PARADE ... and YOU are the STAR

The golf cart parade is the BEST WAY I know to show off to your friends and neighbors... and get free ice cream. There are more golf carts than anything else in Chippewa, and we are hoping for a HUGE turnout this year. There are great ideas for simple decorations which can be found on the internet..... AND Medina and Seville have lots of places, like Dollar Stores, to buy all the stuff you need to decorate. If your kids want to participate, they can come free, and if they don't have a golf cart, they can "roll" with any wheeled transportation.

The theme is "Roll into Summer" (c'mon, how easy is that??). Be at the Village Inn at 6:30. Registration fee is $5 (c'mon, that's CHEAP), and KIDS ARE FREE. PARADE STARTS at 7 PM. The route leaves the Inn, travels on Beachside to Chippewa Rd, then returns to Point Park for ICE CREAM AND FUN!!! If you don't join the parade, then be on the roadways to cheer them on!!
