

COYOTE SIGHTING

It has been reported that a coyote was lurking around a house on Bungalow Bay. Residents saw it right up against their screen door, in the evening.

BOCCE BALL

Have no fear that a coyote will crash the bocce ball gang. They have too much fun and make a lot of noise- so join them for a rousing game, no experience needed---- Fridays at 6:30 pm at Pointe Park

BIG PRIDE BASH

This is it- a big wrap up fun event for the entire family , sponsored by PRIDE. SUNDAY, AUGUST 12, from 5-8:30.

- DUNK TANK, BALLOON TWISTING, FACE PAINTING for the children
- free popcorn and snow cones for everybody
- hot dogs for $1 donation
- 50/50
- auction with lots of goodies and Chippewa memorabilia
- bring your own chair and a sweater, rain or shine!

All proceeds benefit the PRIDE TEAM, which provides so much for our enjoyment- all of the flower pots, and community gardens, fun events all summer- this is an opportunity for you to help them fund all of the projects which benefit all of us.
